FREE

WHEN:

August 14th – 18th
8:00 am – 5:30 pm daily

WHERE:

Colorado Mountain College
3695 Airport Road
Rifle, Colorado 81650

OVERVIEW:

Law enforcement, fire and emergency services are the most complex and rewarding professions in today's society. However, the dangers, challenges, stresses, and demands of our profession place tremendous strain on the men and women who choose to serve and protect their communities. Regardless of your role in emergency services, this conference will not only change the way you think; it will change your life and the lives around YOU!
